

Supported Regions Policy

Anthropic's products and services — including our apps (such as Claude.ai, Claude Code, and Cowork), our API and developer platform, and Claude models offered through cloud platforms and authorized resellers — are available only in the countries and regions listed below.

Territories and dependencies of a listed country are also supported (for example, Puerto Rico as a territory of the United States).

Any country or region not listed is unsupported. This includes:

- Use by persons while physically located in an unsupported region, including users and personnel of otherwise supported entities.
- Use by entities incorporated or headquartered in an unsupported region and their users or personnel, regardless of whether such individuals are physically located in a supported region.
- Use by entities that are majority-owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities in unsupported regions, including use by their users or personnel, regardless of whether such individuals are physically located in a supported region.
